

CHARLES D. ALMO
175 East Delaware Place
Chicago, Illinois 60611

EDUCATION

Post Doctoral Study; University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois 1980-81
Ph.D., Educational Administration; Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois 1974
M.A., Educational Administration, Division of Social Science; University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois, 1970
B.A., English Education; Chicago State University, Chicago, Illinois, 1963

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

1990-2003 - Warren Bacon Distinguished Professor of Urban Education, Director, Doctoral Program in Educational Administration & Supervision; Roosevelt University, Chicago, Illinois
1989-1990 - Chicago Board of Education, Interim General Superintendent
1986-1989 - Chicago Public Schools, Assistant Superintendent Human Resources
1983-1986 - Chicago Public Schools, District Superintendent, District 14
1982-1983 - Chicago Public Schools, Assistant to the Deputy Superintendent, Office of the Deputy Supt.
1980-1982 - Chicago Public Schools, Director, Pupil Service Center
1978-1980 - Chicago Public Schools, District Superintendent, District 16
1971-1978 - Chicago Public Schools, Principal, Martin Luther King High School
1970-1971 - Chicago Public Schools, Principal, Forrestville high School
1969 (Summer) - Instructor, Dartmouth College

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Member, Certification Board, Illinois State Board of Education, 1988-1990
Society for Human Resource Management, 1987-Present
American Association of School Personnel Administrators, 1985-Present
Chicago Alliance of Black School Educators, 1978-Present
Illinois Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development, 1974-Present
Phi Delta Kappa, Northwestern University Chapter, 1974-Present;
Vice President 1975-77
National Alliance of Black School Educators, 1974-Present
Samuel B. Stratton Educational Association, 1973-Present; President 1975-1976
American Association of School Administrators, 1972-Present

AWARDS AND HONORS

Phi Delta Kappa Chicago Chapter, Distinguish Educator of the Year, 1990
University of Illinois, Chicago, TRIO Award for Educational Service and Leadership, 1990
City Club of Chicago, Panel on School Reform, 1990
DuSable High School, Hall of Fame, 1989
Dr. Charles D. Almo, Cherub Scholarship Award, Martin Luther King High School, 1989

Stratton Association, Excellence Award, 1985
Director Project Retain, John Hopkins University, U.S. Justice Department, Chicago
Board of Education, 1981-1982
Push Excel Excellence Award, 1977
Education Professions Development Act Fellow, Northwestern University, 1973
National Defense Education Act Fellow, University of Chicago, 1965